Jamestown, R. I., Aug. 16.—The excessive heat of last week was something unusual or Jamestown, and the St. Louis contingent, as well as other visitors, keep within doors through the middle of the day.

The high temperature has brought the shirt-waist question to the front in an effort to have it apply to men as well as women. The shirt-waist girl is always numerous here, and now that the shirt-waist man has come into evidence the question pomes up for discussion. Such young men and leading society lights as Ephron Catlin, Jr., and David A. Francis, Jr., favor it only buder certain conditions: First, the weathir must be such as to make a coat thoroughly uncomfortable, and second, there must be no suspenders worn. Special Correspondence of The Sunday Republic.
Oconomowoc, Wis., Aug. 16.—A unique golf tournament is on the programme at the links of the Country Club. It is a ladies' handicap, medal play, eighteen holes, for first and second prizes. The handicap will be based on the lowest score ever handed in. The unique feature is in the count, only one score, the best, at each hole, being counted. Practically all St. Louisans at this resort are golfers and they are on the qui vive for the event.

Mrs. Otto Rosenheim, Harold Rosenheim. Arthur Rosenheim, Mrs. A. W. Heilman and Miss Cecile Hellman are the only St. Louisans at Hotel Gifford at present.

Navigable connection between Lakes Oconomowe and La Belle via Fowler Lake is about to be realized. The obstacles to be overcome were two miles of shallow river between Fowler and Oconomowoe lakes, and a difference of level of eight feet between Fowler and Lac la Belle, The dredse, which started from Lake Oconomowoe last June, arrived this week at Fowler Lake and the work is already under headway.

The summer residences of E. C. Simmons, Charles Scudder, James Scudder and David B. Gould of St. Louls are on Lac la Belle; those of their townsmen, Harry G. Brookings and Captain John A. Scudder, are on Fowler Lake, while that of Martin Collins of the Mound City overlooks both, All of them are keenly interested in the improvement, which is to be completed next month. Miss Mary Euston of St. Louls was hostess at a dinner given at the County Club. Covers were laid for twelve.

Otto L. Mersman of the Mound City was one of the judges in the interlake yacht races, which were sailed here last week. He was the only man who served in that capacity in all the races.

Miss Jennie C. Lewis and Miss Nacmi Foristell of St. Louis, who have been spending the summer here, have departed. They will make a tour of various Wisconsin resorts with Miss Foristell's brother, M. # FAIR WORKERS SHOW INCREASED INTEREST.

Leaders Returning From Vacations -Finance Committee Ready to Close $5,000,000 Fund.

INQUIRIES FROM FOREIGNERS.

Commissioner Francis Expects to Sail for Paris About September 15-Secretary Cox Back From the Rocky Mountains.

Several leaders in World's Fair work returned from their vacations last week, and on all sides there is evidence of renewed interest, which will promptly be converted into renewed activity. This is particularly true in regard to the Finance Committee, which has the task of completing the $5. 000,000 fund. Chairman William H. Thompson has not made public his plans for completing this fund, but he is ready for business now, and things are expected to go with a rush as soon as he starts his canvassers out.

Ex-Governor Francis expects to be able to go to Europe by about September 15, and he will be much disappointed if by that time the local subscription fund is not in such condition as to make it reasonably sure that a cablegram will await him on his arrival at Paris announcing that the $5,000,600 has been fully subscribed. The following communication was received from James W. Jump, secretary of the Traveling Men's World's Fair Committee:
"When the work of raising funds for the World's Fair was apportioned, the Com-mercial Travelers of St. Louis were told that if they raised $50,000 that sum would e accepted as an adequate exhibition of mittee in charge went at it hammer and tongs, and in exactly seven weeks raised $104,000. It is now assured that the greatest fair the world has ever seen will be held in St. Louis in 1903, and the Commercial Travelers feel that the; have earned the right to be recognized among the first. We have pledged $101.000 to the good cause and every cent pledged will be paid in. Traveling Men's Building.

"Now, it is our desire to contribute to the architectural beauty of the grounds by erecting one of the most beautiful buildings on the site, and to dedicate it to the commercial travelers of the world. We care not where the site may be, but where commercial travelers of the world, we care not where the site may be, but wherever it is we want the first choice of a position of ground to erect this monument for and to the men who have done more than any one class to carry the light of commerce and civilization to the attermost parts of the earth. If this is granted us we will promise sufficient funds to put to the building. A. G. Bolms, A. R. Smith and J. L. Carleton have been appointed to devise and sell a World's Fair button, to raise the funds to pay for the building, and the committee is now ready to report as soon as you can assure us that our request will be compiled with."

will be complied with."

Mr. Thompson's oft-repeated remark that all that is needed to complete the World's Fair fund is a few more traveling men may be taken as an indication of how this proposition is likely to be received by the committee. Certain it is, that the co-operation of the traveling salesmen of the St. Louis houses is thoroughly appreciated at head-quarters and that a point will be strained wherever possible in order to secure the full mensure of their generous aid.

The following letter was received a few days ago by Governor Francis from J. A. Ockerson, who is at Parls: "I beg to state that at a meeting of the Council of the Eighth International Congress of Navigation, held to-day. I asked them to bear in mind when considering the time and place of future meetings, that the United States Government had made an appropriation for a World's Exposition, to be held in St.

Further communications from United States Consuls at different points indicate the interest that is felt in the Louisiana Purchase Centennial abroad. The Consul at Puebla, Mexico, suggests that the matter be taken up through the Department of State, and speaks of the desire for information manifested by merchants, manufacturers and incorters. facturers and importers.

The United States Consul at Barmen, Germany, thinks that advantage can be taken of the Industrial and Art Exposition to be held in the city of Dusseldorf, Rhenish Prussla, to bring the St. Louis World's Fair prominently to the attention of exhibitors and manufacturers.

"The Consul at Aarau, Switzerland, thinks he can promise a very fine exhibit of straw, imitation straw goods, silk ribbons, knit goods, and similar articles, and tenders his services in any way possible to help secure a representation creditable to his Consulate district and advantageous to the Fair. From Bremen, Germany, comes his Consulate district and advantageous to the Fair. From Bremen, Germany, comes an interesting letter concerning representation from Germany at our World's Fair and also at the International Exposition proposed to be held in Berlin in 1908.

Mrs. Kate Hunt Craddock, writing to Governor Francis from Terrell, Tex., offers to place at the disposal of the Exposition authorities a very valuable archaeological collection. This lady favors giving especial prominence to this feature and gives some interesting details of marvelous discoveries in New Mexico, which she thinks will be exceedingly appropriate at an exposition such as the one proposed to be held in St. Louis.

West Calls It "Our Fair." West Calls It "Our Fair."

Secretary James Cox of the Executive Committee was at his desk in the Mer-cantile Club building yesterday after a two weeks' trip to Colorado. Although it was distinctly a sight-seeing excursion. World's weeks trip to constant. Anti-again a weeks trip to the seeing excursion. World's Fair matters were not forgotten, there being entirely too much interest taken in the subject at the health resorts and mining towns of the Rockies to make this possible.

"Denver," he says, "talks of the Louisiana Centennial as 'our World's Fair,' and strongly favors Attorney General Campbell as Colorado's representative on the Government Commission."

At Colorado Springs among the English colony and the wealthy resident mine owners, the St. Louis World's Fair situation has evidently been carefully watched, very intelligent questions being forthcoming. At Manitou Mr. Cox found James F. Coyle and Henry T.Kent, two enthusiasts in the cause, and the delightfully cool evenings made missionary work among the somewhat nuand the delightfully cool evenings made missionary work among the somewhat numerous St. Louis guests pleasant as well as profitable. "I secured leave of absence for the purpose of securing a much-needed rest with the fixed resolve neither to think nor talk about the World's Fair while away.

But I might as well have resolved not to breathe. There were six travelling men in the sleeper on the Burlington when we left St. Louis, and these kept up a heated discussion in the smoking-room on 1993 till long after midnight. While I was registering at Denver I was recognized by the chief clerk at the hotel who was in the same business in St. Louis until recently. After I had reported progress to him, a man who ran a hotel in Chicago in 1893 handed me his card and asked me to let him know from time to time how matters advanced, as he was going to do likewise in St. Louis in 1993. Then I went in to dinner and sat next to the representative of a Washington avenue jobbing house, who would talk fair. I finally went to bed, convinced that the man who wantel a temporary respite from World's Fair a temporary respite from World's Fair discussions must go considerably farther than Colorado to get it."

JUDGE SEIZED A COURTROOM.

Washington Must Decide Ownership of Hawaiian Building.

Honolulu, Aug. 11. via San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 18.—United States Judge M. M. Este-has arrived here and opened his court, and one of his first acts was to make an order seizing a courtroom for his own use, the local authorities not having provided him with one. Judge Estee ordered United State Marshall Pay to take passession of a States Marshal Ray to take possession of a room which has been the court of Circuit Judge Silliman.

The order from Judge Estee came after a good deal of correspondence had passed between his Honor and Superintendent of Public Works McCandless, regarding the finding of quarters for the United States Court.

The order created a great sensation among the legal fraternity. It has raised the point whether the United States or the Territory of Hawaii is the owner of public buildings ere. The matter will have to be decided at United States Judge Estee is doing quite a large business in naturalizing citizens. Many old residents of the islands never changed their allegiance from the country of their birth, and they are now taking advantage of the opportunity offered by the United States Government. A majority of the new citizens are of English birth.

It is not stated, however, whether his views on the retention of ecclesiastical property by the friars coincide with those of Doctor Nozaleda, Archbishop of Manila, who is outspoken in their favor.

For some time there have been rumors that Doctor Chappelle is strongly in favor of the friars, but nothing definite on the subject will be known until he acquaints Pope Leo with the result of his observations. Doctor Chappelle will not return to his see before next spring, as he intends to spend the winter in France.

BANK PRESIDENT ON TRIAL.

Charged With Submitting False Reports to Washington.

Helena Mont., Aug. 18.—The Government has presented its case in the trial of L. H. Hershfield, former president of the Mer-chants' National Bank of Helena, charged with making false reports of the bank's condition to the Comptroller of the Currency.

Defense will decide on Monday whether it will put in any evidence. The indictment against I. P. Bowman, former assistant cashier of the bank, was dismissed. He tes-tified for the Government, identifying records and letters.

DR.PIERCES GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

"I have been thinking of writing to you for some time," writes Mrs. W. D. Benson, of Maxton, Robeson Co., N. C., "to let you know what a wonderful thing Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery did for my little boy. He was taken with indigestion when he was a year and a half old, and he was under the doctor's treatment for five long years. We spent all we made for doctor's bills, and it did a good. He could not eat anything o y a little milk and cracker, and someti es even this would make him sick, at I he got very weak; could not sit up all day, and I gave up all hope of his ever getting any better. Looking over one of your books I noticed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery recommended for indigestion. We bo some and gave to our boy. Two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured him. He is well as can be, and can eat anything that he wants and it does not hurt him. He has not been sick a day since, and it has been three years since he took your medicine. I pray that God will always bless you and your medicine."
